DIGITAL MARKETING TRANSFORMATION STRATEGY

Program Topics
The Digital Marketing Transformation Strategy program curriculum covers the following topics:

Topic 1 | Understand Digital Disruption and Diagnose Your Current Market Position
- How changes are impacting organizations and the role of leaders today
- Understand the causes and consequences of digital disruption
- The explosion of real-time data, modeling, and data analysis capabilities
- Recognize and manage transformation risk

Topic 2 | Maintain Leadership in a World of Digital Disruption
- Understand current leadership effectiveness
- Follow a strategic roadmap for guiding the organization's digital transformation investments
- Identify transformation opportunities

Topic 3 | Discover Transformation Opportunities
- Data-driven discovery
- Sustain and reinvent the core of strategic discovery
- Reframe the Business and Operating Model
- Identify the ‘Customer Franchise’ opportunity

Topic 4 | Build a Balanced Innovation Portfolio
- What is the innovation portfolio and what should be included?
- Balance current success with future market relevance
- How to measure success and identify goals for future growth

Topic 5 | Reframe Customer Value and Establish Future Relevance
- Envision future marketing success
- Balance current success with future market relevance
- New models for understanding, connecting to, and engaging customers digitally
- Deliver a differentiated customer experience to build and sustain customer loyalty

Topic 6 | Build and Lead Digital Capabilities
- The marketer’s new roles and capabilities
- Assess digital marketing capabilities and the returns from digital investments
- Craft the digital marketing plan: the roadmap for organizational resilience in a world of digital disruption

Visit the program page at: https://executive.berkeley.edu/programs/digital-marketing-transformation-strategy